

GABRIEL CAMARA

UNITY GAME DEVELOPER

Unity developer with a distinction-level degree in Game Design and hands-on experience building gameplay systems, editor tools and user interfaces in C#. Currently contributing to Tectonicus at Gamucatex, developing movement, combat, formation and entity systems. Interested in mechanics, systems design and collaborative game development.

EDUCATION

National Senior Certificate

The King's College, Johannesburg

BSc Computer & Information Sciences in Game Design, Distinction (2024)

Vega School, Johannesburg

Pencil Achievement Award

Second recipient in eight years
Vega School, Johannesburg

EXPERIENCE

Unity Developer Intern July 2026–Present

Gamucatex | Tectonicus

Develop Unity/C# systems for movement, combat, entities, formations and UI. Test, debug and refactor features with the team.

Store Manager June 2025–Jan 2026

Wizards Collection

Supported sales, customer service, store systems and social media after progressing from intern.

Developer 2022–Present

Personal Projects

Build and test Unity gameplay prototypes.

Tutor May–Nov 2023

Kumon

Supported students with maths and language work.

Director 2021–2022

The King's College

Directed a school production using prior acting experience.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

- Unity and C#
- Gameplay mechanics and systems
- Entity, grid, movement and combat systems
- UI and editor tools
- Debugging, testing and refactoring
- Unreal Engine, Java, Python and Kotlin

INTERESTS

Independent game development
Game mechanics and systems
Trading card games and collectibles
Acting and narration
Volleyball

CONTACT

☎ +45 52 68 06 42

✉ gacamarabus@gmail.com

📍 Hedehusene, Denmark

🌐 Portfolio
<https://tr1n1tyangel.github.io/>